HOAGLAND'S

NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!

W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,

Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H R Hoagland we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw and is therefore easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore considered the best in use.

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO May 13.—The Workingmen's Protective Society received last night the report of the committee appointed to consult with Tevis President of the Southern Pacific railroad on the question of employing Chinese labor. Mr Tevis' reply closes as follows: It seems to our Board that inasmuch as the workingmen and tax payers of this city and county are the parties who are to decide by their votes the question of granting a subsidy to our company it is eminently proper that they should as far as possible be the recipients of the benefits derivable from the disbursement of the money thus received. This being the view of the subject taken by our Board and being authorized to speak for them I take pleasure in unhesitatingly saying to your committee and beg that you will present the same to the workingmen and tax payers whom you represent that if the subsidy is voted at the election to be held in June 7th next, they may rely upon every dollar being expended in paying wages to white laborers employed in constructing the road.

The Association after hearing various speakers some of whom counseled the most violent measures against capital adopted the following:

Resolved That the answer of the officers of the Southern Pacific railroad company to the question whether or not Chinese labor will be employed in the construction of said road is unsatisfactory therefore we pledge ourselves to vote against the subsidy.

Resolved That it is the sense of this meeting that the black list shall be opened for publication and that the names of all the parties employing Chinamen be published in one or more of the San Francisco papers.

Resolved That we consider it essential to the interests of the workingmen generally that grocery, clothing and general merchandise stores should be opened on the co-operative principle and that capital be invited to carry out the same.

Compensation of Census Officers

The Superintendent of the Census Bureau has written the following letter to the United States Marshal of Wyoming Territory which as it is a matter of interest to many in Oregon we reproduce in our column:

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
CENSUS OFFICE
WASHINGTON D C April 26 1870

Church Howe Esq., U S Marshal, Dist Wyoming Cheyenne. SIR—This office is in receipt of your communication of the 13th instant having reference to the order to secure a correct enumeration of the District of Wyoming.

In reply I would say first that the question of additional compensation for the Territories and Pacific States is at the present time before Congress. The bill which passed the House of Representatives on the 21st of March provided for additional compensation to Assistant Marshals at the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior in and for all of the States and Territories but not to exceed fifty per cent. upon the rates of 1850 and 1860. The amendment to this bill adopted by the Senate on the 15th of April provided for additional compensation alike to Marshals and Assistant Marshals in and for California Nevada Oregon Utah New Mexico Montana Idaho Colorado Wyoming Arizona, and Washington, but only so much as may be found necessary to secure the prompt and faithful execution of the work.

Either of these provisions you will observe covers the case of your District and all others in the same stage of settlement. The telegraph may advise you before the receipt of this letter as to the final result.

Irrespective however of any change in the law I desire to say that there appears to be a very general misunderstanding of the effect of the compensation clauses of the act of May 23 1850 and there is reason to fear that this misapprehension is seriously interfering with the progress of the preparation for the enumeration to begin on the 1st of June. It is not true that the Pacific States and Territories universally or even as a rule require additional compensation to secure good and efficient service.

Take your own district as an example. You express the opinion that there should be paid to Assistant Marshals for the work of enumeration a total amount of $1 500 or at the rate of $300 for a county. It may be worth while to compute roughly what would probably be paid at the rates of 1850 and 1860 supposing, for instance, that the Territory were to be enumerated as a single subdivision. The number of white inhabitants may be assumed to be 9 000. The area of the Territory is reported by the General Land Office as 97 883 square miles. For 9 000 inhabitants in a pioneer country it may be assumed that there will be 3 000 dwelling houses in the sense of the law. The square root of the number of dwelling houses is therefore 54 86. The square root of the number of square miles is 312 86. The product of these two roots will be the number of miles for which mileage may be charged, namely 17 163, which at ten cents a mile, would yield $1 716 30 on this account alone.

For enumerating 9 000 inhabitants, at 2 cents a head $180 would be paid; for statistics of mortality say $2; for social statistics $3 60; and for farms and shops according to their number at the rate of 10 cents for each of the former and 15 cents for each of the latter. So that it appears that the amount to be paid at the rates of 1850 and 1860 would without additional allowances be considerably in excess of the amount indicated in your letter as absolutely necessary for the correct enumeration of the Territory.

I do not intend by exhibiting this result to disparage the occasion for additional compensation in Wyoming or any other of the Territories. There will undoubtedly be many subdivisions which will not yield enough to pay the expenses of enumeration. But there will be even more which will yield a per diem much larger than can be obtained in ordinary pursuits. The table of compensation paid to assistants in those sections in 1860 shows that the fat and the lean did not fall together. In the State of California, for example, while one Assistant Marshal made as much as $21 a day on the average and many made $12, $15 and $18 a day through the season there were others who made only $5, $4 and $3 a day, which, in that State would not provide food for man and beast. In Utah, again, and in New Mexico the pay of Assistant Marshals in 1860 with only one or two exceptions ranged from $10 to $31 a day, while on the other hand in Oregon and Washington as nearly as can be ascertained the daily pay of Marshals ran down to $5, $4 and $3.

It is undoubtedly true that Marshals can if they will, do much to equalize the labors and compensation of Assistant Marshals by arranging their subdivisions with that view, and that a great part of the injustice as between Assistant Marshals in 1860 was due to the disposition to make particularly good places for favorites. But it is also probably true that with the best intentions on the part of Marshals and with a reasonable exercise of judgment in this matter there would still be subdivisions in which the rates of compensation allowed by the law of 1850 would not be sufficient to meet the traveling expenses of the Assistant Marshal. It is to meet such cases and not to raise the compensation of all Assistants indiscriminately either East or West that additional legislation has been asked. Very respectfully your obedient servant,

FRANCIS A. WALKER
Superintendent

SECRETS OF MASONRY.—Old Zach Wheeler was quite a character in his time, being a clever, easy going, confiding man, who managed to let every body cheat him out of his inherited estates. Just as his last farm was about to slip out of his hands he succeeded in raising the money to lift the mortgage. Aaron Remer, a prominent Mason accompanied him to the town. As they were riding along on horseback, Zach says to Aaron in a confiding tone:

"Now Aaron we are here all alone and I want you to tell me the secrets of Masonry."

"I can't, Zach; they would kill me."

"Why, no they won't; they'll never find it out."

"Yes they will; you'll speak of it."

"No, I swear I won't."

"Well if you'll ride close alongside of me and put your hand on my thigh and take the oath I'll administer, I'll tell you the secrets of Masonry."

Zach was not slow to comply, and a most powerful iron clad oath was administered and taken.

Now for the secrets [illegible] the [illegible] innocent and unsuspecting victim.

"Well," said Aaron [illegible] "in the first place we Masons club together [illegible] as much as we can. This is the first grand secret. The second is like unto it. When we can't find anybody else to cheat, we cheat each other [illegible] as we can."

"Well," exclaimed Zach, with evident surprise, "I swear [illegible] I wish I had done [illegible] twenty years ago. I might have been a rich man of it now."

A man who was once a member of the [illegible] Senate of Ohio died in the Indiana Penitentiary a few days ago. Watts was his name and he married, after arriving at middle age, a young and beautiful but very vain and extravagant woman. She was not a fit companion for him and she rapidly went to the bad, dragging her husband along with her. In a drunken freak he committed the crime for which he was imprisoned.

Jenkins varied the monotony a little when he wrote of the collation at a lady's reception: "Humanity found ample and substantial support in her house."

[illegible] Past Political History

[illegible] interesting [illegible] political history [illegible] Mr Grover figures very conspicuously [illegible] Mr Smith [illegible] Mr Grover's selfishness, duplicity and ingratitude. His present candidacy makes [illegible] from the files of the Democrat [illegible] Mr Grover's character and conduct are there drawn by a master Democratic hand

Mr Smith in his paper bearing date of January 1[illegible] 1868 gave a full account of his political connection with Mr Grover He stated that some time before the meeting of the Constitutional Convention a proposition was made to run Mr Grover for Congress Mr Bush opposed this, and in letters to Mr Smith insisted that he (Smith) should run for Congress before the people instead of Mr Grover —declaring that the latter was a negative man had no backbone was selfish a grober man etc and that if he ran we should have a Miss Nancy canvass a weak, negative and non committal Legislature and a debauched disorganized and unreliable party But Mr Grover received the support of Mr Smith was nominated and elected Subsequently Mr Smith was elected to the Senate He and Mr Grover went to Washington In the meantime Mr Bush who had begun his war on Gen Lane increased the frequency and boldness of his attacks, and demanded the co-operation of Messrs Smith and Grover On our way to Washington says Mr Smith, and very frequently while there Mr Grover upbraided and denounced Mr Bush for his unjust dictatorial and disorganizing course Mr Smith's article in the Democrat proceeds

During all of the above period Mr Grover and ourself perfectly agreed in all matters Our feelings of friendship toward, and our confidence in him were perfect and never, for a moment, doubting his real heart felt friendship for, and confidence in us, we were led to view the twain as the Pithias and Damon of Oregon

Our letters home appeared in the newspapers, and found their way back to Washington, whilst Mr Grover's, written about the same time and of similar import were sunk in the breeches pockets of Messrs Harding and Bush Of course we saw the Statesman in Washington, and by it were apprised (as well as by many private letters), that we, at least, were marked for destruction. Acting upon the advice of our friend Grover, we dispensed with a visit to two surviving brothers whom we had not seen for thirteen years, and hastened home, either to avert or to meet the doom which had been decreed for us In the meantime and before leaving Washington Mr Grover expressed the most unalterable friendship declared that he felt great anxiety for our re election that he had done all he could to effect that result, by letter and otherwise, and that he only regretted that he could not do more

Mr Grover on his return home, was defeated for a renomination, whereat Mr Smith said he was 'not only disappointed, but absolutely shocked' He (Smith), however, took the stump for Mr Stout, but Mr Grover declined to do it, stating to Mr Smith, that 'if he undertook to make a speech in Marion county (in behalf of Mr Stout) the Democracy, even including his old personal friends, would stone him!' The secret of his refusal, however, was that Mr. Bush, who was his political master, prevented him from taking the stump, as he wanted Mr. Stout defeated. "Had Mr Grover," said Mr Smith, "followed our example, by canvassing the State in favor of Mr Stout's election, he would have been openly if not equally, denounced by the editor of the clique organ But we persisted in taking the stump in favor of the election of the obnoxious candidate, and Mr Grover concluded to be sick and remain at home!" In the meantime Mr Grover, who had all the time been making professions of friendship and service to Mr Smith, was secretly endeavoring to undermine him and secure his own elevation to the Senate He alleged that Mr Smith, while at Washington had disgraced the State by appearing in the Senate chamber in state of intoxication, and told other stories injurious to his character A session of the Legislature was called in 1859 to elect Mr Smith's successor In the Democratic caucus Mr Smith was nominated for re-election His enemies in the party being determined to defeat him at all hazards, one of them Mr William Barnhart, came out with a statement relative to his conduct at Washington and gave Mr Grover as his authority This revealed to Mr Smith Mr Grover's treachery As the direct result of it a portion of the Legislature was stampeded, and Mr Smith was cheated out of his election It was Mr Grover and no one else who stabbed the man who was main reliance of the Democratic party in Oregon Mr Barnhart adhered stoutly to his statement, which he caused to be published in Bush's paper But Mr Grover quibbled about it as is his custom when cornered and tried to soften the statement down The question of veracity Mr Smith said he would leave to be settled between Mr Barnhart and Mr Grover though it is certain he had no doubt that the latter had proved treacherous His defeat he attributed in a large degree to the duplicity of Mr. Grover, who, while professing to be his supporter had secretly endeavored to supplant him No fact in the political history of Oregon is better known among those conversant with our politics, than that Mr Grover did play a double part with Mr Smith in the hope of beating him for the Senate, and that his refusal to support Mr Stout was part of the same purpose to secure his own advancement

Mr Grover's conduct in this matter is a fair illustration of his general character There is no wonder that Mr Smith's old friends and supporters in Linn county and elsewhere still [illegible] with indignation the treachery of the man who struck their champion [illegible] and who now comes before them asking as a reward their suffrages for himself

Again, Let Us Have Names

It was charged the other day in the Herald that, prior to the county Republican Convention certain prominent Republicans were approached with an offer of nominations for the Legislature on condition that they would pledge themselves to vote for Williams first and any man whom Ben Holladay might designate afterwards for U S Senator The insinuation of course was that Mr Holladay had either gone in person to those prominent Republicans with this proposition, or sent somebody to them with it In no other way could his name have been connected with the matter We demanded to know who those prominent Republicans were The Herald replies by a quibble It does not give names but tries to avoid the point it first sought to make, by saying that it did not assert that Ben Holladay or anybody in his name made the proposition Then by what right did it connect Mr Holladay's name with the statement As it is now [illegible] he had nothing to do with it let us know who they are who went to those 'certain prominent Republicans' and used his name in this unauthorized manner By what right did they make themselves busy in this matter and attempt to bring odium on the Republican party? We have [illegible] this slander from its first [illegible] till it can find refuge in [illegible] The [illegible] says the Herald does not deny that the Legislative nominees on its ticket are pledged to [illegible] Williams Nor does the Oregonian affirm it, for it neither denies nor affirms in a matter which it is not informed upon We will say however, that if they should vote for Williams they would vote the sentiments of nine tenths of the Republicans of Oregon Further the Herald says that three gentlemen of the Republican party who were voted for in the county Convention for Legislative nominees upon a ticket at the head of which the words were painted 'For return of Geo H Williams to the U S Senate,' were 'defeated because they would not consent to be bound by the head of the ticket on which their names were printed The Herald is a clumsy fabricator Each of those three gentlemen did then and does yet express strong preference for Senator Williams re election. So this endeavor to make a point also falls to the ground

These whole charges are without foundation But, as the Herald says it made them "on the representations of gentlemen in whom it has confidence" let it obtain permission from those gentlemen to give publicity to their names We want to know and since this matter has been agitated the community ought to know who it was that approached certain prominent Republican citizens" with the "proposition" that the Democratic organ has been trying to make so much of First, there was an insidious attempt to inculcate the idea that 'Ben. Holladay' was the mover of this proposition This attempt has now been abandoned, and in its stead we have an insinuation that some person or persons who are admitted to have had no authority to use Mr Holladay's name or to connect it with the Republican Convention, did it Again, we say, let us have names, If no response is made the community will consider this slander as pretty effectually hunted down

In Tribulation About the Chinamen.

It was proven at Oregon City by two witnesses that Mr W P Doland of this city stated to them that Mr Grover once endeavored to negotiate through him (Doland) for Chinese laborers for the Salem factory We notice that a card of denial is published by Mr Doland who however, takes good care not to deny that such negotiations were opened at the instance of the company, with the Chinese. There is positive proof that the company did contemplate the introduction of Chinese labor in their establishment, and did negotiate with the Chinese about it The statement of their agent here is conclusive on this point As for Mr Doland's denial it is unfortunate for him that his word is at variance with that of two men of known integrity and reliability

If Mr Grover would now let the Chinaman alone, he would evince more wisdom than he has ever before shown in his life That cold and cheerless midnight ride from Oregon City to Portland which he undertook with a view of trying to find somebody to help him disprove a fact that is well known, was one of the little troublesome results of his low demagogism about the Chinese He will have more trouble still, if he don't let John alone But how to quit talking about him is the question The whole of Mr Grover's statesmanship consists in his mighty harangues on the Chinaman and if he can't talk on this subject he can have nothing to say.

The course of Mr Grover on this subject is a signal proof of the degradation of his party. A man who can stand up and defend repudiation without a blush is thrown into consternation by having it proved that he once tried to employ Chinese in his woolen mill! What if he did try to employ them? There was nothing wrong in it and his company will have them yet, and no doubt very soon after the election But he has been trying to secure his election as Governor by playing the demagogue on Chinese labor and proof of the fact that he himself has been negotiating for their employment in his factory and that he has them at this moment employed in his house, upsets all his demagogical appeals and turns his harangues back against himself Therefore he becomes greatly excited and alarmed and in him we see a man who, while he is willing to accept the dishonor of repudiation, and who does not wince when so disgraceful a fact is proven upon him, is thrown off his balance and put to confusion by the proof of the trifling fact that he has tried to get Chinamen to work for him If this is not an indication that the Democratic party, in its present estate is rather "low down" what is it?

Editorial Notes

"The burden of Federal taxes" continues to be one of the many fruitful themes with the Democratic press of Oregon But they never give the Government credit for expending five dollars in Oregon for the benefit of the people for every one dollar it takes from them in taxes.

We notice that the paper at Oregon City prints the Doland denial, which Mr Grover came down here to obtain, in large type and makes a great flourish about it We respectfully suggest that as we have presented the proof on this subject double-leaded long primer won't save Mr Grover

The Northern Pacific Railroad Company don't want any additional land grant if they have to take it on condition that they shall sell lands at $2 50 per acre to settlers They should not have it then A Republican Congress will give it to them on this condition but not otherwise Democrats however will not support land grants even when this condition is made Witness their opposition in the Senate to the Astoria bill

We submit respectfully that those who read the affidavits we publish in another column will be constrained to admit that a conclusive case is made out on the Chinese question against the Democratic candidate for Governor That the Salem company desired to obtain Chinese operatives is perfectly certain Now add to the proof furnished by these affidavits the statement of the present agent of the Chinese in this city that they (the Chinese) were addressed on the subject but were afraid to go to Salem lest they should receive violent treatment, and the whole case is made clear It will now be seen that Chinese operatives were wanted in the factory there, and it will be seen also why they did not go This matter is now finally settled Mr Grover's China speech is spoiled for the rest of the canvass

The Eighth Resolution

In his speech the other night at the [illegible] Mr Johnson gave the history of the Eighth resolution He was a member of the [illegible] Committee which reported and is therefore presumed to speak from personal knowledge His account of the matter is that the Committee—eight out of the twenty—framed and reported the resolution [illegible] that it should be understood as expressly meaning repudiation How and why it was [illegible] mouthed in the Convention is matter of public notoriety Even in its modified form it was understood by the original framers as a declaration for repudiation The Herald gave it that interpretation and so did Mr Fay, who wrote it and so did Messrs Slater Kelly and McArthur at the ratification meeting at Portland so did the Enterprise, the Jacksonville [illegible] the Mountain Democrat the Eugene [illegible] and other Democratic authorities No attempt to construe the resolution in any other way, till it was thought subsequently that its effect would be to defeat and disrupt the Democratic party But its meaning still is repudiation and repudiation is what the Albany Convention leaders meant notwithstanding their later second thought, false interpretation

Mr Johnson reviewed Mr Slater's original position and then his new position in favor of greenback payment showing that the latter proposition is as much repudiation as the first He made the proposition very clear that there could be no payment in legal tenders without a new and large issue of such notes, and very clear that such an issue would greatly depreciate their coin value In anticipation of such an issue being put afloat, the capitalists would hoard gold against a money panic leaving the circulation to consist altogether of greenbacks Thus when the ultimate depreciation should be reached the capitalists would be full of gold while the poor people would only have greenbacks The rich would be made richer and the poor poorer—the losses by depreciation of currency would fall absolutely and almost wholly upon the laborers and poor men of the country He asked poor men to exercise their commonsense and determine if this would not be the inevitable result of 'equitable adjustment' as now proposed by Messrs Slater and Grover

The Albany Democrat we are inclined to think will be called upon to administer further chastisement to the little repudiation organ at Oregon City, which breaks out again with exclamations against the national debt, calling it a "nefarious scheme of public plunder" and otherwise manifesting its repudiation proclivities

Grover's Chinese Record

Below we present several affidavits from well known parties at Oregon City, which fully substantiate the statement that the manufacturing company at Salem, in which Mr Grover is a great light, have been negotiating for Chinese labor

I R Jacob do solemnly swear that some time in the fall of 1868, and at several times I had conversations with W P Doland, acting agent of the Chinese in Portland I was managing agent of the Oregon City Woolen Mills Mr Doland was extremely anxious to have me take Chinamen to the mill at Oregon City Among other things he stated in the fall of 1868, in his office over Randall's store in Portland, that the Salem mill was about to employ Chinese that he had just received a letter from Mr Grover, the agent of the Salem mills proposing to take Chinese, that they were waiting for me to do the same, and then they would go in, Mr Grover he said was only waiting to see the result here, and then would take them (Signed) R JACOB

I, W C Johnson, do solemnly swear that for two or more years before May, 1868 I was one of the Directors of the Oregon City Manufacturing Company, that Mr W P Doland, then acting agent of the Chinese in Portland ascertained from some source that I was opposed to the employment of Chinese in said Oregon City Mill at that time, that several times while I was such Director, Mr Doland called me into Randall's Music Store, where he was staying to endeavor to change my mind on the subject In these conversations he stated to me more than once that the Salem mills were proposing to take Chinese operatives and that we must do so, or they would run us out of the market by making goods cheaper than we could He further stated that these two companies were afraid of each other upon this matter of employing Chinese but that they could and ought to agree to both put them in at the same time, and that the Salem Directors and agents were ready for such an arrangement

Whether or not Mr Doland in his anxiety to secure employment for his clients misrepresented the managers of the Salem mills is a question I am unable to answer W C JOHNSON

CITY.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING.—The Republican Club Rooms were opened last evening by a rousing demonstration. The audience room was [illegible] crowded, and for an hour after the speaking commenced people continued to arrive. The 2 1 Infantry Band were in attendance and at [illegible] playing music the first Speaker Hon W. Lair Hill was introduced by the President of the Club Mr Geo H Durham. Mr. Hill was greeted with a round of applause and entered upon his address with a few words congratulatory of the cheering prospects of the party then proceeded to make one of the ablest speeches of the campaign. Owing to the lateness of the hour we shall not attempt to follow the speakers in a review of their arguments. Mr Bent h len was next introduced. It was his maiden political speech before an audience in this city but he has gained the reputation already won by him for his activity in all times under all circumstances when there is a call for work. After Mr Killen came Mr. H T Levins one of those who in the earliest days of the war gave up his business and buckling a knapsack having to speak metaphorically, heard up in Wisconsin the guns of Sumter calling to arms. He gave his individual reasons as to why he opposed the Democratic doctrine of repudiation, which reasons were as good for the audience, if we may judge from the applause he received. After the speaking a large crowd crowded the Secretaries desk and when we left the band was still playing and men were enrolling themselves for the contest.

RUNAWAY TEAMS.—As Mr C. H. Perkins of the American Exchange, was passing up Front street yesterday with a spirited team a dog frightened the horses at the corner of Morrison street, and away they went—running their very best for the distance of ten blocks before he could get them fully under his control. A lady occupied the seat with Mr Perkins and no withstanding the imminent danger of [illegible] she kept very quiet, speaking only words [illegible] request to Mr Perkins to hold the team and [illegible] [illegible] occurred. Later in the evening a team driven by another gentleman became frightened on Madison street and before he could check them he was thrown from the buggy and the horses went down First street to Salmon and up Salmon to Ninth street, where they were caught without having done further damage to the outfit than the springing of an axle. On the way however a crowd of small boys playing in the street were run over, but most fortunately none were killed, although one of them son of Mr Bunnell was hurt so badly as to cause a call for medical aid.

ITEMS FROM THE SENTINEL.—The Catholic Sentinel of this morning has the following

SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION.—We find in the [illegible] an account of the organization, on [illegible] of last week, of a Sabbath School [illegible] at Oregon City by Rev C W Todd [illegible] W L Cooper J Hoberg J Dillon Wm [illegible] A C Fairchild and J F Devore min[isters] of the Portland District. The hard rain [illegible] the meeting prevented others [illegible] from attending. Rev J F [illegible] was elected President; and Rev A C [illegible] Secretary. An order of business was [adopted] and the Convention proceeded at once to [discuss] various topics represented by its members. REV. J. H. WILBUR.—Remarking upon the re[appointment] of Rev J. H Wilbur to the Agency of the Yakima, the Advocate says: "The Government has never had a more competent and faithful Agent, nor the Indians a truer hearted friend, than Mr Wilbur. Blended in him may be found at once the commanding influence of the Soldier, and the Christian sympathy and kind heart of the Friend. His reinstatement will be joyful news to the Indians. We have not learned that he will [accept] the appointment."

A MAGNIFICENT BANNER.—The banner of the Republican Club was suspended from a rope on Front street yesterday, at the Club Rooms. It is a magnificent banner, 30 feet in width by 45 feet long. On one side is this inscription, in very large illuminated characters: REPUBLICAN HEAD QUARTERS, LIBERTY PEACE, JUSTICE. The reverse side contains the State and county ticket which is to carry in this county on the 6th day of June by an overwhelming majority.

RAILROAD BILL PASSED.—The Herald says: A [dispatch] was received in this city, Thursday, from Washington, stating that the railroad bill to construct a branch road to connect the Central Pacific Railroad with the Oregon and California road, by the Humboldt route had passed both houses of Congress. This measure [has] been known as the Pangborn bill and has been before Congress for several years.

FIRE.—About 5 o'clock P M yesterday fire was discovered at the house of Mr Levi Estes [in] the block west of the court house. Only for [the] timely discovery and the well directed efforts of Messrs. THE PIXLEY DRAMATIC TROUPE.—Under date of the 7th at Roseburg Mr Lloyd Manager of the Pixley Dramatic Troupe informs us that they will soon arrive in this city and play a short season after a successful trip through the country. WILL SAIL TO-DAY.—The next steamer from California to Portland will sail from San Francisco to-day.

A FALSE ALARM.—A letter upon the above subject will receive due consideration on Monday.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS

Louis Napoleon advises the ex-King of Spain to go on his travels and let Isabella alone. This model wife is at daggers drawn with her husband, and L. N. is afraid they will kill each other one of these days.

It is reported that Samuel Bowles of the Springfield Republican is about to establish a newspaper in New York for the special advocacy of the claims of Hon. Schuyler Colfax to the next Presidency.

Good news for the ladies: gloves it is said will be very cheap in the fall. The Paris market is overstocked and the Italian gloves are rapidly gaining favor although they do not wear as well as the French gloves and the kid is not so fine.

General Lee is now receiving his punishment for being a rebel. Some dreadful brass bands in Savannah have been banging away under his window notwithstanding he was sick in bed and a lot of atrocious poetry is being fired off at him through the papers.

The hair dresser of the Empress receives fifty thousand francs a year salary besides perquisites. As the Empress is getting a little bald it is thought that cutting her hair may save it and consequently the long chatelaine braids are going out of fashion and the hair will be worn short and curled close to the head like a man's.

One of the longest sentences in magazine literature is to be found in Lippincott's for April in an article upon Florida. It fills over a page of double columns and contains more than eight hundred words. The writer must have taken as a model Rufus Choate's Eulogy on Daniel Webster, one sentence of which covers four and a half pages.

The particulars of the eruption of the volcano of Ceboruco in Mexico have been received. The eruption increased in violence, lava was pouring down the mountain sides in streams, the air was stifling and ashes from the burning mountain covered the roofs of houses over an inch deep. The mountain sides and surrounding country had been abandoned by the inhabitants.

The revolutionary troubles in the central States of Mexico are waning, but in other parts insurgents are still active. Cadena and other chief tains are still in the field but their forces are small. Santa Anna, son of the President has not been executed but will be tried at Puebla. Palino Rorrega a bandit and his officers were recently captured and shot near Pachuca.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

[From the Olympia Age, May

Several of the signers of the Bolters' Manifesto have published cards saying that they were induced by false representations to sign and that they retract and denounce the manifesto as false and slanderous.

The California reached this place last evening about dark with Gov. Salomon, Major Hayden and the accompanying party on board. The bunting of the town was generally displayed and a salute fired. An informal reception was improvised by a large number of our citizens and after he had reached his hotel the Governor was loudly called for and responded to the call in a few well chosen remarks. If mutual and hearty efforts to please were ever successful they will certainly be in this instance.

GEN. CROOK.—The Boise Statesman has the following article which is but justice to Gen Crook:

Gen Crook, commanding the Department of the Columbia, is expected to arrive in Boise in a few days on an official tour of inspection of the military posts in his department. Three and a half years ago the General arrived at Fort Boise. At that time murders of travelers and settlers by Indians were frequent and stealing of stock from ranches of almost daily occurrence. Ten days after his arrival the General started out on an active campaign against the enemy although it was in the dead of winter and the roads for ordinary travel were almost impassable. The General never permitted his troops to rest summer or winter. His operations embraced a tract of country extending from the Des Chutes on the west to Grass Creek mountains east, from Goose Lake south to the Columbia north. In the month of June 1868 after eighteen months of ceaseless campaigning, the final blow was struck by the capture of a band of over one hundred Indians by Lieut Stanton on the banks of Malheur river. The surrender of this party under the renowned Winnemucca, soon lead to a peace which has been kept inviolate to the present day. General Crook has not his equal in the army as an Indian fighter and as he will shortly be relieved of the command of the department and perhaps be ordered elsewhere we think it is due that a cordial reception be extended him upon his arrival in our city. There is no man living to whom Idaho is more indebted.

An Old Fallacy Exploded

Thirty or forty years ago it was the fashion to administer powerful purgatives as "spring medicines." Terrific doses of salts and senna, calomel and jalap or glauber salts were given to all the members of a family whether sick or well, by way of preparing them for the warm weather in prospect. This pernicious custom is nearly obsolete, but there are some old Bourbons of private life, incapable alike of forgetting anything or learning anything, who obstinately cling to it still. Nothing could be so pernicious, more utterly unphilosophical than such an onslaught on the vigor and elasticity of the system. In order to enable the physical structure to resist the enervating effects of spring damps and summer heats, it should be toned and reinforced, not relaxed and weakened. The best medicine agent for that purpose is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Its effect is to tone the stomach and liver, gently relieve the bowels and obstructions, brace the nerves, improve the quality of the blood, stimulate the appetite and cheer the spirits. In this improved condition the organization is incapable of resisting unhealthy influences which would prostrate an enfeebled system. A vigorous digestion is absolutely essential to health, and there is no danger of the stomach faltering or failing in its important office if the genial vegetable elixir is taken regularly as a stomachic. None of the tonic tinctures or extracts will supply the place of the Bitters, for the simple reason that they operate as astringents only. In fact, in ordinary practice five or six prescriptions would be required to produce separately the beneficial results which are effected simultaneously and harmoniously by this single specific.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, and palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

A Bad Memory

From the Washington Chronicle

Mr Jefferson Davis has written a letter to a good Philadelphia Democrat now going the rounds of the press denying the statement of Senator Cameron that he once told Davis that his seat in the Senate would one day be occupied by a colored man. We reprint the letter and we publish it not to refresh the memory of the ex rebel but to put on record a little matter of history

MEMPHIS Tenn March 3 1870

MY DEAR SIR Yours of the 2d instant reached here during my absence which will explain the delay in this reply. Senator Cameron made no such statement as that quoted by you. He made no remarks to me at the time of my withdrawal from the Senate other than the expression of his good wishes for me. His relations with me had been uniformly those of personal kindness and I have expected him as a duty to himself and to truth to deny having made such remarks as have been imputed in the newspapers

Men had not then reached the degree of stultification which caused the withdrawal of States from the Union to be called rebellion and the only remark so far as I know made by any Senator which had the least practical bearing was the expression of Mr Hale of New Hampshire that he expected us all soon to come back

Very respectfully and truly yours
JEFFERSON DAVIS

In 1861 about two weeks before Mr Davis left Washington to join his fellow traitors in the South, Senator Cameron met Mrs Davis on Pennsylvania avenue. In reply to her question as to why he did not come and see Jeff the Senator said, "Why does not Jeff ask me?" "Well I ask you to come and breakfast with us to-morrow morning." "At what hour?" "Nine o clock" "I will be there"

At the time mentioned Senator Cameron made his appearance and after breakfast the conversation naturally turned upon the then attitude of the South. Davis was as usual outspoken in his secession views and threatened that if it came to the worst and blood had to flow, war would be waged in the States north of Mason and Dixon's line. As may well be supposed, such words were not pleasing to the Pennsylvania Senator and he answered in effect that the rebellious section would be brought back into the Union, and that he firmly believed that, if the South persisted in its course, not only would the slaves all be set free, but that "One day a colored man will occupy your seat Mr Davis, in the United States Senate"

Davis, in great anger turned to Senator Cameron, and said that the North, not the South, would suffer from the coming war, and that he himself would "lead a party to burn to the ground your property, Mr Cameron, in Pennsylvania"

Of this incident Mr, Davis appears to be as forgetful as he has been of his oath. When the invasion of Pennsylvania was attempted by the rebel army, one of the generals received orders to destroy, if possible, the property of Simon Cameron and Thaddeus Stevens. They burnt that of the latter, and went on their way to destroy Gen. Cameron's, when they turned upon their tracks

This is a plain straight story. Cameron fulfilled his promise better than Davis did his threat.

The New Apportionment

[From the New York Tribune]

We assume that the Senate will not seriously—or at least not successfully—attempt to override the decision of the House that, for the next decade, the number of Representatives in Congress shall be two hundred and seventy five, with such additions only as the admission of new States may, from time to time, involve. These will hardly exceed five in all, or one each from Utah, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming and Dakota as they shall severally be admitted (We assume that New Mexico will be admitted at this session, so that her number will be one of the 275)

In the following table, we present 1 The total population of each State, as returned by the census of 1860, 2 The estimated population of such State according to the census about to be taken; 3 The number of its present Representatives in Congress; 4. The number to which it will probably be entitled under the new census. We think this will vary but one each from the actual number in any case, and not at all in most instances.

DOMESTIC LIFE IN JAPAN —M Humbert, the Swiss Minister at Yeddo has just published some amusing details of the domestic life of the Japanese. In Japan marriage is the universal habit. Almost the only exceptions are to be found in the case of certain monastic orders and among the ladies in attendance upon the Empress. Men marry at about twenty and women at fifteen years of age, but except in the Buddhist sects the act is marked by no religious ceremony. Among the presents displayed is always to be seen a double-lipped vase. At a given moment one of the bridesmaids advances fills it with saki and presents it alternately to the bridegroom and bride until the goblet is emptied. Under this symbol the idea is conveyed that together the husband and wife must drink the cup of conjugal life to the dregs—whether it be filled with ambrosia or with gall. Japanese mothers have greater authority over their children than their fathers and the rights of women are so far recognized in the country that a woman has wielded the sceptre of the Mikados. But to return to the home life. The law of the country insists that each child shall be daily exposed to the air without clothes and with its head shaved, and, in spite of both rain and sun. During infancy the child's ordinary playmates are a fat, short legged dog, and fat ter, tailless cat. Instruction is not forced on either parents or children. It is supposed to recommend itself naturally, by its own intrinsic merits and every man and woman throughout the Empire is able to read write, and cipher. The thirtieth day after birth every citizen receives his first name, on attaining his majority he takes a second, a third on his marriage a fourth on being invested with any public function which he changes upon attaining each higher grade, and so on to the name given to him after death. The last is engraved on his tomb, and he is by it known to all succeeding generations

The Albany (N Y) Evening Journal has the following commendatory of Senator Williams. Advices from Oregon indicate a close election in June, but encourage the hope that the Republicans will succeed in redeeming the State. The seat of Mr Williams in the Senate depends upon the question as the Legislature to be chosen at the next election will name his successor. Under such circumstances it would seem that the Senator would return home and give personal attention to the canvass. He has however decided to discharge the duties the State has devolved upon him and not abandon them even to aid in his re election for another Senatorial term. The example thus set if generally imitated by our public servants would elevate the character and dignity of official position

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtaining immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge

CURED AT HOME

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of these self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find the Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patients letters etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy anyone who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure

Address DR J F GIBBON 623 Kearney street corner Commercial (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 252
